

Juan Pablo Hernández

Partner & Head of Real Assets

Gender: Male

Year of Birth: 1989

Professional Experience

Partner and Real Assets Manager.

Juan Pablo joined HMC as an investment analyst, supporting the international funds distribution for institutional investors in the region, and the asset management, where he was actively involved in the analysis and structuring of various projects related to the real sector.

In 2015 assumes as Head of Real Assets, leading the investment and management team in charge of the real estate development and income funds, in the Andean region.

In 2015, he worked as a professor for the Financial Management Fundamentals course at the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile.

Academic Background

Mr. Hernandez holds a B.A. from Pontificia Universidad Catolica de Chile and Master in Finance from the same university.